

When answering a question it is best to answer in full sentences. It makes your answer clearer and your work sound more interesting.

The easiest way to do this is to use part of the question to start your answer.

Example 1:

Question: What colour is the sky?

Answer: The colour of the sky is blue.

Example 2:

Question: Why is writing in full sentences a good idea?

Answer: Writing in full sentences is a good idea because it might get me more marks!

Here are some questions and answers. Fill in the missing parts of the answer using the questions to help you.

1. How many months are there in the year?	There are twelve .....in the .....
2. What colour is the grass?	The ..... of the ..... is green.
3. How can writing full sentences give you a better mark?	Writing ..... sentences can give me a ..... mark because it makes my answers clearer.

Below are some questions. See if you can rewrite the answer and turn them into full sentences.

4. What is the term that we use for describing words?
Adjectives
5. What are the three stages of proofreading?
Check for corrections, read aloud and then get someone else to read it.
6. What is the easy way to write a full sentence when answering a question?
Using the question in the answer.

Task

Answer the following questions using full sentences.

8. What is your favourite TV programme?
9. What are you having for lunch today?
11. What do you like doing in your spare time?
12. If you could meet anyone famous, who would it be and why?

Task

Write some instructions for a friend on how to write a full sentence using the question to help them!